

Beyond the Leaderboard: Build Your Own Numerai Dashboard

Piotr Płoński

Decentralized AI Day Warsaw 26/09/26

Mercury

turn notebook

```
Simple pricing model
price_map = {"Starter": 100, "Pro": 200, "Enterprise": 300} df["unit_price"] = df["product"].map(price_map)
df["revenue"] = df["unit_price"] * df["quantity"]
```

```
[3]: region_sel = mr.MultiSelect(label="Region", choices=regions, value=regions)
channel_sel = mr.MultiSelect(label="Channel", choices=channels, value=channels) product_sel = mr.MultiSelect(label="Product", choices=products, value=products) metric = mr.Select(label="Chart metric", choices=["Revenue", "Units"], value="Revenue") granularity = mr.Select(label="Time granularity", choices=["Day", "Week", "Month"], value="Week")
```

Region

North × South × West × East ×

Channel

Online × Retail × Partners ×

Product

Starter × Pro × Enterprise ×

Chart metric

```
[4]: # filter data mask = (
    (df["region"].isin(region_sel.value))
    & (df["channel"].isin(channel_sel.value))
    & (df["product"].isin(product_sel.value))
)
dff = df.loc[mask].copy()
```

Mercury

<https://github.com/mljar/mercury>

Stater Web App

Numerai Dashboard

Numerai Advanced Dashboard

Set Custom Styles

Deploy

